As per Academic Regulation 8g, students may appeal an academic suspension or dismissal in cases of health issues, bereavement and/or other extenuating circumstances that impacted your studies. As part of your suspension or dismissal appeal, you must submit the following along with this form:

- A letter to address the following questions:
 - Outline the factors that led to your Academic Suspension or Dismissal, including any challenges you encountered that may have impacted your studies.
 - What specific steps have you taken to address these challenges?
 - What steps will you take to help achieve Good Academic Standing (CGPA of 1.70)?
- Attach relevant supporting documentation.
- Return the completed form along with supporting documentation to your Faculty Advising Office.
 - Faculty of Arts: BAadvising@smu.ca
 - Sobey School of Business: bcomm.advising@smu.ca
 - Faculty of Science: advisor.science@smu.ca

Your current suspension or dismissal will remain in place during the appeal process. Once a decision has been reached by the Appeals Review Committee, you will be notified via email. Please note, the review process may take up to 30 business days to complete. A copy of your appeal will be kept in your student file.

I have read and understand the above.
