

Immigration in smaller provinces and federal immigration policy changes in Canada

Date: Thursday, May 15, 2025

Time: 9:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Hosted by: Atlantic Research Group on Economics of Immigration, Aging and Diversity
(ARGEIAD)

Location: Scotiabank Theatre, Sobeys Building, Saint Mary's University

Contact: Manar Salem IMTE '23, Manager, Strategic Initiatives and Special Projects

Event Description

The main objective of this one-day event is to understand how changes in Canadian immigration policy are expected to affect immigration in Atlantic provinces. We will hear from academicians, policymakers and settlement sector.

Details of event to follow by March 10, 2025. Save the date.

About ARGEIAD

Affiliation

Sobey School of Business, Saint Mary's University

Our mandate

To promote research and knowledge mobilization focusing on national, regional, and international dimensions of immigration, diversity, and aging in-order to uncover the facts about their economic significance.

Key priority areas

Labour market performance of immigrants (and non-immigrants); economic impact of immigration; population diversity and aging in Atlantic Canada, smaller jurisdictions in particular; and their implications for public and business policy.

Web site address

<https://www.smu.ca/argeiad/>